CHAPTER XV.

A TYPOGRAPHICAL error in one of the papers caused no end of amusement to every one except Monty and Miss Drew. The headlines had announced, "Magnificent Ball to Be Given Miss Drew by Her Financier," and the Little Sons of the Rich wondered why Monty did not see the humor of it.

"He has too bad an attack to see anything but the lady," said Harrison one evening when the Sons were gathered for an old time supper party.

"It's always the way," commented the philosophical Bragdon. "When you lose your heart your sense of humor goes too. Engaged couples couldn't do such ridiculous stunts if they had the least particle of it left."

"Well, if Monty Brewster is still in love with Miss Drew he takes a mighty poor way of showing it," Subway Smith's remark fell like a bombshell. The thought had come to every one, but no one had been given the courage to utter it. For then Brewster's silence on the subject since the DeMille dinner seemed to have something ominous behind it.

"It's probably only a lovers' quarrel," said Bragdon. But further comment was cut short by the entrance of Monty himself, and they took their places at table.

Before the evening came to an end they were in possession of many astonishing details in connection with the coming ball. Monty did not say that it was to be given for Miss Drew, and her name was conspicuously absent from his descriptions. As he unfolded his plans even the Little Sons, who were imaginative by instinct and reckless on principle, could not be quite acquiescent.

Nopper Harrison solemnly expressed the opinion that the ball would cost Brewster at least $125,000. The Little Sons looked at one another in consternation, while Brewster's indifference expressed itself in an undulating comment upon his friend's vulgarity. "Good Lord, Nopper," he added, "you would speculate about the price of gloves for your wedding!"

Harrison resented the taunt. "It would be much less vulgar to do that, Monty, saving your presence, than to force your millions down every one's throat."

"Well, they swallow them, I've noticed," retorted Brewster, "as though they were chocolate."

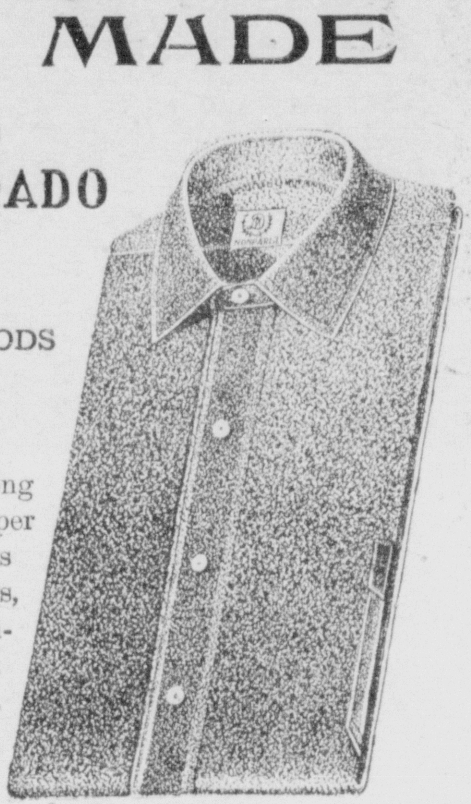

Pettingill interrupted grandiloquently. "My friends and gentlemen!" "Which is which?" asked Van Winkle casually.

But the artist was in the saddle. "Permit me to present you to the boy Croesus--the only one extant. His marbles are plunks, and his kites are made of fifty dollar notes. He feeds upon coupons a la Newburg, and his champagne is liquid golden eagles. Look at him, gentlemen, while you can and watch him while he spends $13,000 for flowers!"

"With a Viennese orchestra for twenty-nine thousand!" added Bragdon. "And yet they maintain that silence is golden."

"And three singers to divide twelve thousand among themselves! That's absolutely criminal!" cried Van Winkle. "Over in Germany they'd sing a month for half that amount."

"Six hundred guests to feed--total cost of not less than $40,000," groaned Nopper desperately.

even determined effort could not conceal from his friends. Little fits of fever annoyed him occasionally, and he admitted that he did not feel quite right.

"Something is wrong somewhere," he said ruefully, "and my whole system seems ready to stop work through sympathy."

Suddenly there was a mighty check to the preparations. Two days before the date set for the ball everything came to a standstill and the managers sank back in perplexity and consternation. Monty Brewster was critically ill.

Appendicitis, the doctors called it, and an operation was imperative.

"Thank heaven it's fashionable," laughed Monty, who showed no fear of the prospect. "How ridiculous if it had been the mumps or if the newspapers had said, 'On account of the whooping cough Mr. Brewster did not attend his ball!'"

"You don't mean to say--the ball is off, of course," and Harrison was really alarmed.

"Not a bit of it, Nopper," said Monty. "It's what I've been wanting all along. You chaps do the handshaking and I stay at home."

There was an immediate council of war when this piece of news was announced, and the Little Sons were unanimous in favor of recalling the invitations and declaring the party off. At first Monty was obdurate, but when some one suggested that he could give the ball later on, after he was well, he relented. The opportunity to double the cost by giving two parties was not to be ignored.

"Call it off, then, but say that it is only postponed."

A great rushing to and fro resulted in the canceling of contracts, the recalling of invitations, the settlement of accounts, with the most loyal effort to save as much as possible from the wreckage. Harrison and his associates, almost frantic with fear for Brewster's life, managed to perform wonders in the few hours of grace. Gardner, with rare foresight, saw that the Viennese orchestra would prove a dead loss. He suggested the possibility of a concert tour through the country covering several weeks, and Monty, too ill to care one way or the other, authorized him to carry out the plan if it seemed feasible.

To Monty, fearless and less disturbed than any other member of his circle, appendicitis seemed as inevitable as vaccination.

"The appendix is becoming an important feature in the book of life," he once told Peggy Gray.

He refused to go to a hospital, but pathetically begged to be taken to his old rooms at Mrs. Gray's.

With all the unhappy loneliness of a sick boy he craved the care and companionship of those who seemed a part of his own. Dr. Lotless had them transform a small bedchamber into a model operating room, and Monty took no small satisfaction in the thought that if he was to be denied the privilege of spending money for several weeks he would at least make his illness as expensive as possible. A consultation of eminent surgeons was called; but, true to his colors, Brewster installed Dr. Lotless, a Little Son, as his house surgeon. Monty grimly bore the pain and suffering and submitted to the operation which alone could save his life. Then came the struggle, then the promise of victory and then the quiet days of convalescence. In the little room where he had dreamed his boyish dreams and suffered his boyish sorrows he struggled against death and gradually emerged from the mists of lassitude. He found it harder than he had thought to come back to life. The burden of it all seemed heavy. The trained nurses found that some more powerful stimulant than the medicine was needed to awaken his ambition, and they discovered it at last in Peggy.

"Child," he said to her the first time she was permitted to see him, and his eyes had lights in them, "do you know, this isn't such a bad world after all. Sometimes as I've lain here it has looked twisted and queer, but there are things that straighten it out. Today I feel as though I had a place in it--as though I could fight things and win out. What do you think, Peggy? Do you suppose there is something that I could do? You know what I mean--something that some one else would not do a thousand times better."

But Peggy, to whom this chastened mood in Monty was infinitely pathetic, would not let him talk. She soothed him and cheered him and touched his hair with her cool hands, and then she left him to think and brood and dream.

Life Lost Its Charm.

Petersburg, Ind., July 24.--August Yeager, residing near Spurgeon, this county, after a quarrel with his sweetheart, went Lome and, placing a 32-caliber revolver to his head, sent a bullet between his eyes. Probing has been done but the bullet has not been located. There is little hope for the young man's recovery.

Kills Bride and Himself.

Philadelphia, July 24.--William Holroyd, aged twenty-five years, shot and killed his wife Lillian, aged seventeen, Sunday and then committed suicide by sending a bullet into his heart. The youthful couple were married a year ago and the tragedy was the result of frequent quarrels during the last three weeks.

Deadly Quarrel Over a Girl.

Boonville, Ind., July 24.--John Heady slashed his rival, Homer Kelly, in a quarrel over a young girl living ten miles from this place. The knife penetrated within almost a hair's breadth of the windpipe. The injured man was taken home, and his recovery is doubtful.

EUROPE STEWING

Conference Between Czar and Kaiser Is Noted With Inquietude.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

In London and Paris There Are All Sorts of Conjectures Over Secret Meeting at Sea.

In Paris the Belief Obtains That William Is Enacting the Role of a Marplot.

St. Petersburg, July 24.--The emperor left Peterhof Sunday morning on board the imperial yacht Standart for Bjorko, forty-five miles to the northwest across the Gulf of Finland. He went to meet Emperor William at dinner on board the German imperial yacht Hohenzollern last night.

London, July 24.--The London newspapers today note with inquietude the sudden resolve of Emperor Nicholas to visit Emperor William, and all kinds of speculations are indulged in as to the possible motives for and the results of such a momentous interview.

KAISER WILHELM II.

At a time when so many difficult problems are facing European diplomacy. The Moroccan and Scandinavian questions are regarded as possible subjects for discussion; and it is also supposed that the reactionary party in Russia may have succeeded in persuading the emperor of the impolicy of permitting M. Witte to conclude a peace on a basis acceptable to France and Great Britain.

All the correspondents agree that the interview was of Emperor William's seeking, and the result is awaited with the greatest anxiety.

A curious story is published in Brussels in connection with King Leopold's appeal recently to the Belgian chamber to pass the bill providing for the fortification of Antwerp. The Petit Bleu asserts that a few weeks ago when a Franco-German war over the Moroccan difficulty seemed not improbable, Great Britain called Belgium's attention to the fact that Belgium was expected to become the chief battlefield. Thereupon a bill extending the fortifications of Antwerp was introduced, but it met with such opposition that King Leopold felt it necessary to intervene to secure its passage.

Telegrams from Berlin indicate that the meeting between the emperors is as great a surprise there as elsewhere, official circles protesting their utter ignorance regarding it.

Paris Is Anxious.

Paris, July 24.--Emperor Nicholas's cruise in the Gulf of Finland to meet Emperor William is the subject of much comment in the press. Certain newspapers express the fear that the German emperor will influence the Russian emperor over far Eastern matters and will hinder the carrying out of the peace program, while others are of the opinion that Emperor William will seek to estrange Russia from France. The Journal des Debats says that the first acts of Emperor Nicholas on his return to Russia will be looked forward to with particular interest.

Boycotters Show Consideration. Shanghai, July 24.--In carrying out the boycott by the Chinese of American goods which was arranged for at a mass-meeting here July 20, an exception will be made in the case of American dealers who have not yet received supplies of new goods. They will be allowed to sell their existing stocks, but in the future contracts with them are forbidden by the leaders of the boycott movement. It is announced also that the Chinese pupils be allowed to continue in attendance at American schools.

Japs Gain Important Point.

Tokio, July 24.--A daring reconnaissance of a Japanese squadron was made in Possiet bay on July 14. Three days later the Japanese vessels occupied Russian harbor, where there is a vast and splendid harbor. Some of the vessels ran right inside Possiet bay, which is of great strategical value.

STRONG PULPIT TALK

Secretary of Anti-Cigarette League Denounces Governor Hanly.

Indianapolis, July 24.--The Rev. W. A. Shaw, pastor of the Trinity Congregational church and national secretary of the Anti-Cigarette League of America, from his pulpit last night referred to Governor Hanly as a coward and denounced him bitterly for alleged failure to enforce the drastic anti-cigarette law enacted by the recent legislature.

The fact that C. A. Baker, lobbyist for the tobacco trust, who fled after Representative Ananias Baker of Rochester accused him on the floor of the house with attempting to bribe him, has not been apprehended, brought down the wrath of Rev. Shaw.

"Governor Hanly is a coward, and I don't care how soon he knows that I said it," declared Rev. Shaw. "Any man who will shirk responsibility devolving on him as an officer in the exalted position he occupies is not deserving of being called anything else. Why does Governor Hanly seek to enforce the saloon laws and permit the chief of police at Michigan City to hurl in his teeth the statement that he will make no attempt to enforce the anti-cigarette law in that city. The tobacco trust must feel flattered at the governor's policy of discrimination. The governor does not hesitate to safeguard the dilapidated, depleted lot by enforcing rigidly the anti-saloon laws, but he forgets the men of tomorrow--our boys--and allows cigarette material to be sent broadcast throughout the state without making any attempt to suppress the vice. Has he inquired of the postmaster general as to the legality of the traffic through the mails? It is very evident that he has not or we would have heard of that good deed, as we have of his many other gracious acts which are being flaunted constantly before our eyes in the public press.

"Why does Governor Hanly allow this law to be trampled down until the supreme court passes on its constitutionality? Why has the arch enemy of boys, O. A. Baker, accused of seeking to corrupt our legislators, been permitted to go unpunished while the people are clamoring that the $5,000 set aside for his capture be spent for that purpose? Are there fears of shadows, dark and ominous, to certain men close to the governor who would be embarrassed should Baker be brought to account?"

Rev. Shaw declared that Governor Hanly's talk of reform will fall short till he attempts to enforce the anti-cigarette law, and that he will continue to fail in his duty till these matters are righted. "Can it be possible that the governor is only seeking in his great reform to strike back at the one great element which bitterly opposed him in the last campaign? He is certainly doing very little on any other feature of reform, and especially in the interest of the boys," he continued. This utterance it is supposed was inspired by the knowledge of the fight the liquor interests made on the governor.

The attack on the governor created a sensation in the big congregation. There were a few "amens," but most of the auditors were so surprised that deathlike stillness prevailed throughout the sermon. It was understood that Rev. Shaw expected to preach a sermon laudatory of the governor, hence the surprise over his remark was even greater than it would have been.

A COMPLETE MYSTERY

No Clue to the Perpetrators of Constantinople Horror.

Constantinople, July 24.--Three commissions are inquiring into the attempt on the life of the sultan Friday, but they have not yet been able to find the slightest clue either to the author or the origin of the outrage. The killed include Beha Bey, tutor to the sultan's sons. The majority of the victims were coachmen and twenty-seven hack coaches were blown to pieces and fifty-five horses were killed. Eyewitnesses describe the scene after the explosion as heartrending, with men and horses lying dying around. A hole two yards wide was made in the ground by the explosion of the bomb.

Body of Father of American Navy Landed At Annapolis.

SIMPLE CEREMONIES

Marked the Transfer of the Honored Remains From the Brooklyn to the Tomb in Academy Grounds.

Rear Admiral Sigsbee's Mission Completed in Most Satisfactory Manner.

Annapolis, Md., July 24.--The John Paul Jones expedition, commanded by Rear Admiral Sigsbee, completed its mission with the landing of the body of the distinguished dead this morning. The eight ships of the squadron, four cruisers and four battleships, rested all day Sunday in the anchorage off the naval academy, lying in double column, with the cruisers, headed by the Brooklyn, nearest the city. The day was without ceremony with the exception of the exchange of calls between admirals and the superintendent of the naval academy and Admirals Sigsbee and Davis and Captain Gervais of the French cruiser Jurien de la Graviere. On the half deck of the Brooklyn, in a specious compartment at the entrance to the cabin of Admiral Sigsbee, reposed the remains of John Paul Jones, contained in a casket of lead, enclosed in another of wood of handsome design, and draped with the colors. Constant guard was kept by an armed Jackie. Admiral Sigsbee regards his mission as eminently successful and satisfactory. His squadron has steamed nearly 7,000 miles without delay on account of accident or mishap to machinery. In detailing a brief account of his trip Admiral Sigsbee said: "Our reception abroad was a magnificent tribute. It was most generous and hearty in the honors paid, not only to the distinguished dead, but to the navy of the United States."

At 8 o'clock this morning Rear Admiral Sigsbee saluted Rear Admiral Sands with thirteen guns, and the salute was returned from the shore batteries. A salute to the squadron from the French cruiser was then given and returned. With these formalities over the active transfer of the body was begun. The personnel of the fleet was put ashore in small boats to form an imposing guard of honor when the body was landed. Its transfer to the shore was made on the naval tug Standish, and the landing made on a float draped and moored to the wharf. It was there placed in a hearse and transferred to the vault in the academy grounds. The only ceremony was the reading of Psalms by Chaplain H. H. Clark of the academy.

Admiral Sigsbee will give a dinner this evening aboard the Brooklyn, at which the French captain Gervais will be the guest of honor. The captains of the cruisers and their aides and Admiral Sands will be guests. The fleet of battleships left their anchorage today and dropped down the bay. Admiral Sigsbee will proceed with his fleet to Tompkinsville Tuesday. His ships will be there laid up for repairs. The French cruiser will depart Tuesday for Martinique.

DEATH OF COLONEL LAMONT

He Was Secretary of War Under Mr. Cleveland.

New York, July 24.--Colonel Daniel Lamont, secretary of war under Mr. Cleveland, died at 9:15 o'clock last evening at his country residence at Millbrook, Dutchess county, N. Y., after a brief illness.

Daniel Scott Lamont was born at Cortlandville, N. Y., Feb. 9, 1851. He began life in journalism and from 1885 to 1889 was private secretary to President Cleveland, by whom he was appointed secretary of war March 6, 1893. Mr. Lamont was vice president of the Northern Pacific railway and director and trustee in many railroad and financial corporations. He leaves a widow and two daughters.

Candid of General Canham.

Indianapolis, July 24.--General Jas. R. Canham, commander-in-chief of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, who has been very ill for some time at his home here, is said to be improving slowly and hope is now entertained for his recovery. He has been confined to his home most of the time for two months, but his associates hope that he will soon be able to take his place in their midst.

The Jury's Verdict.

Roxnoke, Va., July 24.--After a joint trial lasting one week the jury in the case of Dr. A. R. Hoback and his son, Fred Hoback, charged with the murder last winter of John R. Jett at Floyd, Va., has returned a verdict acquitting the elder Hoback and finding Fred Hoback guilty of manslaughter, fixing his punishment at eight years in the penitentiary.

Looking Into It.

Washington, July 24.--The grand jury of the District of Columbia today took up the allegations that there has been jugglery in the cotton crop statistics reports of the department of agriculture, with a view to possible indictment or indictments.

CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON

Contagious Blood Poison more thoroughly poisons the blood than any other disease. Every part of the body is affected when the virus becomes entrenched in the circulation; red eruptions break out on the skin, the mouth and throat ulcerate, glands in the neck and groins swell, the hair falls out, copper-colored spots appear on the body, etc.

I was afflicted with blood poison, and the best doctors did me no good, though I took their treatment faithfully. In fact I seemed to get worse all the while. I took almost every so-called blood remedy, but they did not seem to reach the disease, and had no effect whatever. I was disheartened, for it seemed that I would never be cured. At the advice of a friend I then took S. S. S. and began to improve. I continued the medicine, and it cured me completely.

Hamlet, N. C. W. R. NEWMAN.

So highly contagious is this disease that many a life has been ruined by a friendly hand shake or from using the toilet articles of one affected with the poison. To cure this hideous and hateful disease a constitutional remedy is required. S. S. S. goes down to the very root of the trouble and forces out every particle of the virus from the blood and cures the disease permanently. S. S. S. is purely vegetable and drives out the trouble, rots and branch, and no signs of it are ever seen again. Those who have been cured by S. S. S. can feel assured that none of the poison is left in the blood to transmit to innocent offspring. The entire body is built up and the blood made pure, rich and healthy by this great remedy. Book with instructions for home treatment and any medical advice desired will be given free of charge.

Yacht Went Down.

Delaware Breakwater, Del., July 24.--Yawl yacht Narketa, owned by Dr. H. A. Hare of Philadelphia, sunk Sunday in the main ship channel off West Brandywine shoal in six fathoms of water. Dr. Hare and a friend were taken off by the yacht Circe. The crew of four men is missing. The masts show at low water.

Thieves' New Departure.

Logansport, Ind., July 24.--Armed with hoses instead of Jimmies, thieves entered the truck farm of Charles Weeks on the outskirts of this city and stole twenty bushels of potatoes. It must have taken almost all night to have dug them. Weeks lives within a few rods of the patch and was asleep when the theft occurred.

Still Shouting for Anarchy.

Pittsburg July 24.--Alexander Bergman, the anarchist who thirteen years ago attempted to assassinate H. C. Frick, finished his penitentiary sentence, and shouting for anarchy, was transferred to the county workhouse, where he will serve thirteen months for carrying concealed weapons.

Passenger Train Derailed.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 24.--A Walhach passenger train was derailed three miles west of Buffalo last night. Five passengers were injured, none of them seriously.

A Quart Baby.

Now and again there is an item in the newspapers concerning the birth of a puny baby so small that a quart cup holds it comfortably. If the article told all the facts it would probably tell also of a mother who in weakness and misery had looked forward to the baby's advent with shrinking and fear.

To have fine, healthy children the mother must be healthy, and it is the common testimony of mothers that the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription not only promotes the mother's health but also gives her strength to give her child.

"Favorite Prescription" accomplishes these results by strengthening the nerves, promoting a healthy appetite, and giving rest.

freshing sleep. It increases physical vigor and gives great muscular elasticity, so that the baby's advent is practically painless. It is the best of tonics for nursing mothers.

"I gladly recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. J. W. G. Stephens of Mills, Northumberland Co. Va. "Before my third little boy was born I took six bottles. He is the finest child and has been from birth, and I suffered very much less than I ever did before. I unhesitatingly advise expectant mothers to use the 'Favorite Prescription.'"

Dr. Pierce now feels fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which he cannot cure. All he asks is a fair and reasonable trial of his means of cure.

A COLUMBUS reporter announces that a farmer's wife over in Brown the gizzard of a chicken. Two nuggets worth a dollar each were found in one gizzard. This ought to raise the price of Brown county chickens.

The farmers of this section of the state have learned that right here is the best place to market their wheat and corn. Farmers of adjoining counties are finding this out and many of them are marketing their grain here at a much better price than they can get at home.

on account of the bad condition of the track.

All of the Seymour horses at Mad-having been entered in several of the of the races there.

FILTRATION PLANT.

Work of Installing Will Soon be Completed.

The new filtration plant being put in by the Seymour Water Company is about completed and will be put in operation in ten days or two weeks.
An inspection of this plant is sufficient to convince any one that it will do the work. The system is one that has been put to the test and found to be the most satisfactory system in use.

The water will be pumped from the river first into a large settling tank.
From this it flows into four large tanks where it filters through several feet of sand into the pure water water reservoir below and from this it is pumped into the standpipe. The capacity of the filter is two million gallons a day.

The facilities for cleaning the filters and ridding them of the sediment that gathers seem to be perfect. The people of Seymour can rest assured that when this plant is in operation they will be supplied with as pure water as any city in the state.

Forty Car Loads.

The Blush Milling Company have been kept busy today unloading the large amount of wheat shipped from points in Indiana and some of the neighboring western states. This morning there were forty-five car of wheat standing in the yards ready to be unloaded. This is an unusually large amount to receive at one time and is an evidence of the excellence and abundance of this years wheat crop.

Funeral Notice.

The remains of Mrs. Harry Baer arrived from Jackson, Michigan on No. 1 Sunday morning and were taken to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Jeffries. The funeral will take place from their residence at 119 N. Vine street Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. M. Baxter will be

August Lippincott's.

So inviting is the table of contents presented in the August number of Lippincott's magazine that it tempts even the jaded appetites of tired readers who had decided "just to loaf" during the warm season. The Magazine's leading feature is an always-first-class novelette. This possesses all a novel's best points so condensed as to omit tiresome explanations and descriptions, leaving a well covered kernel to delight the palate. "Her First Elopement" is by Clara Bartram—so called—and supposed by those who know to be an alias for a prominent writer who is on intimate terms with New York fashionables.
This is a rattling tale of Newport with its world-renowned yachts and its lovely women.

B. & O. S. W.

Making Extensive Improvements at Mitchell.

General superintendent Brinson, of the B. & O. S. W., says that the company is expending about $100,000 in improvements at Mitchell. The expenditure of this money to build switches and increase the capacity of the Mitchell yards was made necessary by a big contract the Mitchell Cement company has to supply cement for the construction of the Panama canal. The contract calls for 5000 barrels of cement a day for the next eight or ten years.

This means that a big slice of Lawrence county is to be transported to Panama and put to use. This is said to be one of the largest contracts and the biggest traffic proposition ever undertaken. The cement plant intends to double its capacity in order to handle the contract promptly.

To handle the cement and to transport to the plant the raw material from the two quarries, one of them near Shields in this county, and to haul the fuel necessary, it was necessary for the railroad to increase its yards at Mitchell.

Engineers Meet.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers are holding a special meeting here today. Business of importance to the engineers is under consideration and quite a number of the B. & O. S. W. engineers are in attendance. Among those from out of town attending are John Donnellis, Frank Evans, and By. Robertson, of Washington. E. Brown, M. Cahill and A. P. Michaels, of Chillicothe, Ohio and H. E. Wiles, of Cleveland, Ohio.
The meeting will close with a banquet tonight.

Threshing Delayed Again.

On account of the rain wheat will not be dry enough to thresh before noon tomorrow and maybe not then. The rain Sunday forenoon was one of the hardest of the season.

ill of appendicitis.

Miss Kate Foster returned this morning from a visit at Deputy.

Mrs. W. P. Masters returned this afternoon from a visit at Cincinnati.

is here the guest of the family of Rev.
J. A. Sargent.

John Sensback is home from Springfield, Ohio, to visit his parents, Mr.

A Grim Tragedy

is daily enacted, in thousands of homes, as death claims, in each one, another victim of consumption or pneumonia. But when coughs and colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntly, of Oakland, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which cured her, and today she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guaranteed at 50c and $1.00 by W. F. Peter Drug Co.

A LOVE FEAST

Republican Editors Will Hear Much Politics at Winona.

Indianapolis, July 24.—The meeting of the Republican editors at Winona Lake this week promises to become a "love feast" for the Republican leaders. Among the candidates who are going to attend are John C. Bilhel met, candidate for auditor of state; John Dyer of Hammond, candidate for treasurer, and Fred Sims of Frankfort, candidate for secretary of state.
There will be a dozen other candidates for places on the state ticket. Senator Hemenway is now en route home from Mackinac Island and will be one of the guests of honor. Senator Reveridge, however, will not be present, as he will not return from northern Wisconsin for some time. Chairman Goodrich expects to attend. There is to be no set program for the meeting.
"Just a good time" will be the general idea. Several members of the association arrived here this afternoon to take the train tomorrow at 11:30 for the lake.

The horrible automobile accident near here last Friday night in which a fourteen-year-old girl was burned to death and other persons severely injured has called the attention of many people to the fact that the new state law regulating the speed of autos is not being enforced. It is practically a dead letter and there has hardly been an effort to test it. The members of the recent legislature spent a lot of time discussing the automobile bills and finally passed one that was generally regarded as a remedy for the evils that are known to exist, but there is no record of where prosecutions have been had under it. Auto drivers are still using the public highways for race courses, endangering lives and property. One state official said today that if the law were enforced by local officials that the liability of accident would be greatly lessened, but he added that the law might as well be off the books as on unless there is some disposition shown to carry out its provisions. Hundreds of licenses have been issued at the secretary of state's office, showing that the sale and use of the machines has increased at a rapid pace, but as stated, there are but few instances wherein the new law has been enforced.

The mails arriving here are loaded down with cigarette papers sent out supposedly by the tobacco trust, which is doing a thriving mail order business since the drastic anti-cigarette law was enacted. While a judge here held that cigarettes could be imported in original packages and smoked, and while many dealers are said to be selling them on the sly, the law has accomplished a part of the purpose of the men who drafted it, for it is remarked frequently that there is less smoking on the streets here than ever before. Once in a while a man or boy is met with a cigarette between his teeth, but they are not run into at every step like they were before the law was passed. It is probably safe to say that the law has reduced cigarette smoking at least 50 per cent. Two appeals from the lower courts are now pending in the supreme court, and it is likely that the constitutionality of the law will be determined shortly after the opening of the fall term.

CONTAGION SCOUTED

Mexico Does Not Quarantine Against Yellow Fever.

Mexico City, July 24.—The health authorities here say there will be no quarantine against New Orleans should it turn out that yellow fever exists in that city. The sanitary inspection of arriving passengers from infected ports is strict and suspected cases are isolated. Merchandise from ports where yellow fever exists is not detained. The theory on which the Mexican sanitary authorities deal with yellow fever is that it is only communicated by a species of mosquito, thus the unreasonableness of quarantine precautions.

St. Louis Goes Dry.

St. Louis, July 24.—As a result of Governor Folk's determination to use the city police force in an effort to break up alleged violations of the Sunday saloon closing law in St. Louis city, a large number of city policemen were scattered throughout the county and fourteen arrests were made on charges of keeping saloons open on Sunday.

DOING THEIR DUTY.

Scores of Seymour Readers Are Learning The Duty of The Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidney's duty.

When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick.

Backache and many kidney ills follow.

Urinary troubles, diabetes.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all.

Seymour people endorse our claim.
James Pollard, of Cincinnati Ave., railroad employe, says: "For many years off and on I suffered from lameness across the loins and sharp twinges of pain in my back every time I made a sudden movement. I could lift nothing of any weight and there was lack of ambition to do anything.
At times the pain felt as though some one was plunging an awl into me.
Any little cold or exposure brought on an attack and caused me acute suffering. I had heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and procured them at C. W.
Milhouse's drug store. They proved just the remedy I needed and soon relieved me of the whole trouble. My kidneys have been regular and normal ever since and I can sleep all night without being disturbed."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster—Milburn Co., Buffalo, States.

Miss MacDuff's Recital.

A very successful recital was given at the Christian church, at Milford, Friday night by Miss MacDuff and a dozen of her pupils. A large and appreciative audience made it evident that the people of the historic old village have a taste for first class entertainment.

So well did the people like the recitation, pantomime and orchestra work that they requested Miss MacDuff to give a similar recital, which will probably be at the M. E. church at that place in the near future.—Greensburg News.

The Dead of the Bennington Are Laid to Rest.

San Diego, Cal., July 24.—They buried the Bennington's dead Sunday—forty-seven of them—in a common grave. On the crest of the promontory of Loma, high above the shimmering water of San Diego bay on the one side and within sound of the booming surf of the Pacific on the other, they were laid to rest in the peaceful little military burying ground. Without the crash of drum or the sound of brass, without pomp or parade, yet with simple impressiveness, all honor was paid the nation's dead.

Army and navy paid their last tributes, no less sincere than the simple grief of the representatives of peace, who made the long journey around or across the great bay. From Fort Rosearns came the 115th company of coast heavy artillery; from the city of San Diego the naval reserves; from the Universal Brotherhood's home on Point Loma a company of khaki-clad representatives, and from the government ship Fortune a dozen of their sailors. But the most impressive body of mourners were the fifty-two men from the battered Bennington. Beside these there were hundreds of civilians who, unthoughtful of the fatigue journey from the city, brought their offerings of flowers to lay upon the graves.

San Diego was a city of mourning.
Although the people of this little city have taken in the Bennington catastrophe an interest that was personal to all from the moment that it happened, they set apart the beautiful Sabbath day to pay last and loving tribute to the dead. Thousands filed through the moraines with arms filled with flowers, dropping the blossoms here and there upon some unfortunate flag-draped coffin. Other thousands gathered in the plaza, from whence the procession of coffin-laden wagons was to start.

Promptly at noon the long line of vehicles began the long journey around the bay to the burial place.
There were no bands of music to stir the people with a deafening melody—everything was quiet and businesslike.
The task was too big to be hampered by any usages of ordinary funerals. Forty-seven men were to be buried, and to bury them it was necessary to haul them ten miles up steep hills and along dusty roads. Every casket bore a beautifully executed wreath thoughtfully sent by the San Diego commercial bodies. The flags came from the nation in whose service they had died. Every one of the plain, black-stained caskets was draped with the national emblem, and the plain commercial utility of the dead-wagons was disguised under the folds of the national colors. From noon until 3 o'clock these dead-burdened wagons toiled toward the burial grounds, and not until almost half past four was the last casket placed in the rock-ribbed trench.

The Death List Swells.

San Diego, Cal., July 24.—A careful compilation of casualties in the explosion on board the Bennington follows: Buried in military cemetery at Fort Rosearns yesterday, 47; dead now in morgue, 10, awaiting shipment to relatives; dead in fireproof of Bennington, still unrecovered, 2; total dead, 59. Injured at various hospitals, 50; missing, 16. Grand total, 105. Of the injured at hospitals, seven or eight are expected to die.

Healthy Mothers

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr.
Boschee's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25c; large size, 75c. For sale by W. F. Peter Drug Co.

How to Get Well.

Every organ of the body is directly connected with the brain by nerves. The nerve cells in the brain generate nerve force—power—and send it to the organ through these nerves, and this nerve-force gives life and action. The organs work perfectly when there is sufficient nerve power. Lack of nerve force weakens the action of an organ and it works imperfectly—becomes sick.

Two-thirds of all sickness is thus due to weak or deranged nerves; it is therefore advisable to take Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve, because it makes nerve energy.

When you cure the nerves you remove the cause, and that's the way to get well.

"Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve cured me of nervous prostration after every other effort had failed to give me relief. My trouble seemed to begin with a general loss of strength and a breaking down of the nervous system. I suffered from headache, constipation and fluttering or palpitation of the heart. My appetite failed and I was so nervous and restless that I could not sleep at night. My husband, who is a druggist, brought me a bottle of Nerve. It helped me from the start, and I continued using it until I had taken six bottles. My health was completely restored."

MRS. SILEA M. MORRISSE.
Dr. Miles' Nerve is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

Regimental Reunions and Forty- Second Anniversary Battle Chickamauga.

Chattanooga, September 17-21, 1905.

On September 18, 1905, will occur the forty-second anniversary of the Battle of Chickamauga. It is proposed to celebrate this memorable event with a reunion of the various regiments that participated in this memorable battle, and, in addition, to hold at the same time, a grand reunion of all the regiments that participated in the various battles fought around Chattanooga. This reunion will be held at Chickamauga National Park, September 18, 19 and 20, and the present indications are that it will be the largest and most notable gathering ever held in the south. On the above dates, the remnants from the armies of twelve states, comprising the following: Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri, Kansas and Kentucky, will assemble, many for the first time since they marched from their blood-stained fields, forty-two years ago.

Grand and glorious will be the meeting and all who attend will have cause to rejoice.
The lowest rate ever secured has been given, the entire public for this occasion, one cent per mile, short line distance.

Here is one of the great opportunities for the education of the youth. Don't fail to take your children and show them historic Chattanooga, with all its historical connections.
It is the opportunity of a lifetime. Go and see the old war generals and other officers point out the places of interest on the battlefield; let them show you and explain, in person, the markers erected on the battlefield showing the positions of the opposing armies at the time of battle. It will not be long until none will be left to do this noble work; take this opportunity and don't let it escape you, it is worth six months in the school room to any student.

It will be many years, if ever again, that such an opportunity will present itself. See

A BITTER FEELING

Is Growing Among the De-positors of Wrecked Hagerstown Bank.

AN AMAZING SHOWING

It Is Found In Many Cases That De-positors' Accounts Do Not Agree With the Books.

Balances Exhibited by Pass Books Turn to Debits On the Bank's Books.

Hagerstown, Ind., July 24.—Scarcely less sensational than the suicide of John Bowman came the developments following the examination of the bank's books. Receiver Spekenher has thrown open the doors of the bank and announces that he is ready to receive the pass-books of depositors for the purpose of comparing them with the books as kept in the bank.

The result in most cases is amazing.
Depositors who supposed, according to their pass-books, that they had good sized balances in the bank, are informed that the books show against them, and the evidence of the books will be taken in the absence of a conclusive showing by the depositor. In most cases it will be impossible for the depositors to offer conclusive proof that their own showing is right and the books of the bank wrong.

Every depositor will be put on oath and their statements reduced to writing, and in case false testimony is offered for the purpose of securing a larger sum from the bank than they are entitled to, the matter will be handed over to the grand jury. The situation is a most trying one for the 800 depositors, who feel that they know how their accounts stand and yet hesitate to make oath for fear there is a possibility of being wrong.
The feeling of bitterness against Bowman and his criminally loose methods is growing stronger as day by day shows the utter abandon and recklessness with which he took the people's money.

DYNAMITERS FOILED

Fuses Were Defective and South Bend Escaped Disaster.

South Bend, Ind., July 24.—An attempt was made to blow up the Owl saloon and pool rooms in the central portion of the business district. Two sticks of dynamite were touched off on the stairway leading to the poolrooms, and a third cartridge was found later, the fuse of both dynamite sticks having burned down to the caps, which investigation shows were defective. The attempt was made at an early hour, when few were in the place, and the dynamite was found by a scrub woman. A suspicious looking man was seen about the place, but the police believe some heavy loser at gambling made the attempt to destroy the place.

Brown County's Hopes Raised.

Nashville, Ind., July 24.—The farmers west of Nashville are again elated over the prospect that there is gold in that part of Brown county. The enthusiasm was started again when Mrs. Ira Campbell, wife of John E.
Campbell, found two nuggets in the gizzard of a chicken. The nuggets, though small, are of exceptionally fine quality and are worth about $2. The Campbell farm is two and three-quarter miles west of Nashville.

Interesting Fossil in Vigo.

Terre Haute, Ind., July 24.—A track layer brought to this city part of a petrified prehistoric animal resembling a lizard. The head and tail were found intact, and reckoning from these sixteen feet. The fossil is attracting much attention here, and according to a faculty member of the normal, the find is one of the most important in recent years.

Father May Not Survive Shock.

Laporte, Ind., July 24.—Revised reports from the Bennington disaster show that among the dead is W. M.
Ficheweller. The father of the dead sailor is suffering from paralysis and the shock of the news of the death of his son may prove serious. The boy, who had nearly finished his first enlistment, was popular among Laporte people.

He Had Been Drinking.

Brazil, I. I., July 24.—Charging a bartender with stealing his wheel, A.
B. Miller shattered the windows of Sam Tribble's saloon with a revolver.
The men in the saloon dropped behind the bar and escaped injury. There were no arrests. Miller had been drinking.

Both Wounded and in Jail.

Vincennes, Ind., July 24.—Joe Burton and A. C. Carnahan indulged in a shooting scrape and as a result Burton carries a broken arm and Carnahan is wounded in the right leg. They are now in jail. The trouble was over Carnahan's wife.

Slot Machines Out of Business.

a raid made by authorities were pounded into scrap iron with a sledge
